

Conditions of Use

The Royal Society of Chemistry (RSC) and the Canadian Research Knowledge Network (CRKN) have negotiated an amendment to their License Agreement on behalf of the University of Ottawa to give access to RSC journals to members of the Canadian Society for Chemistry that are employed by or own SMEs, defined as organizations which have less than fifty (50) employees and an operation budget of <C$20 million.

In accessing the RSC Journals via the University of Ottawa, it is your responsibility to be aware of and abide by the following conditions:

- Access to the library electronic resources is limited to authorized users: members of the Canadian Society for Chemistry that are employed by or own SMEs.
- Authorized users may view, download, copy, print and save, and store for editing or temporary storage only, single copies of individual search results or individual articles (i.e. not entire issues of journals) for personal use, research or study, in accordance with Canadian copyright law.
- It is expressly forbidden, by human or automated means, to systematically download or reassemble any portion of the licensed products.
- Authorized users must not transmit, disseminate or otherwise make the licensed resources available to unauthorized users or organizations, by any means.

Please be mindful that:

- This license agreement is a formal contract.
- Your access to RSC journals can be blocked for inappropriate use.
- Such inappropriate use can result in suspension of access for all members.

Your cooperation and understanding is appreciated.
