

Canadian Society for Chemical Engineering | For Our Future

Calgary Members Group

Process Safety Competence Matters
April 7, 2016, 17:00, Calgary, Alberta

Location: Hyatt Regency, Calgary

Cost: free-of-charge, open to all

Registration: www.icheme.org/calgary-process-safety-matters-registration

ICHEME and Canadian Society for Chemical Engineering Joint Calgary Members Group invites you to attend its first technical meeting of 2016. Join us for what looks set to be an informative evening and a great opportunity to network with chemical engineering friends and colleagues in Calgary.

For our first technical meeting of 2016 we have presentations from Trish Kerin, IChemE director of IChemE Safety Centre, David Guss, past president CShE and Andy Furlong, IChemE director of communications.

Agenda:

17:00 arrival, meet and greet with Moruf, David and Andy

17:45 presentation by IChemE Safety Centre director, Trish Kerin

18:00 talk by CShE past president, David Guss

18:20 presentation by IChemE director of communications, Andy Furlong

18:40 drinks, canapés and networking

19:45 finish

Location: Hyatt Regency, Calgary

Cost: free-of-charge, open to all

Registration: www.icheme.org/calgary-process-safety-matters-registration

Presentation details:

The main speaker is Trish Kerin, director of IChemE Safety Centre (ISC). Trish who will talk about the Centre's process safety competency framework, which was published in 2015. The framework defines process safety competency across an entire organization, from operator to director. Trish will describe how the framework can be used to improve organizational safety performance, develop personal competency and enhance employability. She will then lead a discussion and answer questions on all aspects of ISC's work, including the benefits of registration as a Professional Process Safety Engineer.

David Guss, past president of the Canadian Society for Chemical Engineering (CSCChE) will say a few words about the Society's work in Alberta.

Andy Furlong, IChemE's director of communication will give a short presentation on the findings of the 2016 Canadian Member Salary and Satisfaction Survey.

The presentations will be followed by an open Q&A where David and Andy will answer your questions on any aspect of the collaborative partnership between IChemE and CSCChE and service delivery in Canada.