

Canadian Society for Chemical Engineering
Société canadienne de génie chimique

R. S. Jane Memorial Award

This is the premier award of the society, and is presented to a person who, while residing in Canada, has made an exceptional achievement in the field of chemical engineering or industrial chemistry.

Deadline

December 1 every year

Sponsor

CSCHE

Award

- A framed certificate
- $3,000 cash
- The award winner will be required to present an award lecture in the conference.
- One complimentary registration for the Canadian Chemical Engineering Conference in which the award will be presented (no travel expenses will be reimbursed).

Nomination Requirements

A nomination package must be submitted electronically through ScholarOne. The package should include the following:

- Citation (maximum 250 words) statement explaining why the nominee should receive the award. This is the key document of the nomination and should provide information about the nominee's achievements pertinent to the award.
- Biographical Sketch (maximum one page) providing background information of the nominee and their accomplishments. This is a summary of information obtained from a Curriculum Vitae.
- Curriculum Vitae (maximum nine pages).
- Supporting Letters (3 to 5). At least two letters must be from outside the nominee's organization.

Notes

Membership in the Society is not a prerequisite for this award.

Nominations that are not awarded will remain active for three years in total, commencing from the initial nomination date. The nominators are responsible for keeping the record of their nominees up to date and complete.

The award winner is encouraged to submit to the Editor-In-Chief of The Canadian Journal of Chemical Engineering a manuscript based on the award lecture, having contents appropriate to the journal's objectives, for consideration of publication.

Selection Committee

- CSCHE Director of Awards as non-voting Chair
- CSCHE President
- CSCHE Vice-President
- Two past winners of the award

Notes

The award shall be presented annually unless

- the committee considers that no suitable candidate is nominated, or
- less than two nominations are received

When considering a nominee who has applied for multiple awards (or is already an award winner), the committee will evaluate the nominee based on their accomplishments that are different from those being considered (or already recognized in the last five years) by other award committees.
